

National Museum of Scotland Chambers Street, Edinburgh

RSP have been appointed on several projects to carry out investigative, remedial and rectification works to the existing mechanical and electrical systems within the building.

Advice is also provided by RSP on energy usage and recommendations submitted to NMS on strategies to reduce energy costs and carbon emissions. This advice is provided to other NMS sites throughout their estate portfolio including The National War Museum, The Museum of Flight, The Museum of Rural Life and The National Collection Centre.