

Scottish Water Treatment Works & Waste Treatment Works Upgrade

RSP has a long established working relationship with Scottish Water were appointed to upgrade of all Grade I and II Scottish Water sites for the replacement of process controls, pumps, main switch gear and electrical infrastructure.

The projects included detailed surveys of the existing sites, evaluation of energy consumed, and condition of the existing installations prioritising upgrade work programmes and executing project works.